LIFE INSURANCE OWNERSHIP CHANGE FORM

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS:

Complete a separate form for each policy unless the current owner(s) and new owner(s) information is the same on all policies. Additional information may be attached on a separate sheet if needed.

A form that has been altered or that there has been an erasure cannot be accepted unless the alteration or erasure is initialed by the current owner(s).

The Social Security number or Tax Identification Number of the new owner(s) must be shown in the appropriate space.

An ownership change does not automatically change existing beneficiary designations. To change your beneficiary, please request and submit a Beneficiary Designation Form to AAA Life.

If you have questions about the appropriate ownership designation for your situation, you should contact your legal advisor for assistance.

A change in ownership must be specific in naming the new owner. Class designations (such as "my lawful children," "brothers and sisters of the insured") cannot be used.

USA PATRIOT ACT:

Federal Law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who becomes the owner of an existing account.

What this means for you: When you change policy ownership, we will ask for name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify the new owner(s). The Company may include the use of third party sources to verify the information provided.

BUSINESS ENTITIES AND TRUSTS:

The submission of a completed IRS Form W-9 may be required. An Employer Identification Number for Trusts or Business Entities is required.

Date of Trust refers to the date the trust was established.

AGREEMENTS:

All parties certify that you have read this form and understand that it is subject to the provisions and conditions of the policy listed.

The new owner(s) certifies that it is a U.S. Citizen or other U.S. Person (U.S. Resident Alien).

The current owner(s) certifies that the policy is not assigned to any other person or corporation, except where otherwise noted on this request, and that no proceedings of bankruptcy or insolvency have been filed or are currently pending against you.

We reserve the right to require additional information as needed.
